Think Shipping - Think Bumi Laut

Your Right and Reliable Partners in Indonesia
We Serve You Throughout Indonesia Into The World

Think Shipping - Think Bumi Laut

The Bumi Laut Group is a well-established and dynamically growing business enterprise, with origins dating back to 1922 when its first office opened in the Port of Belawan, North Sumatra, Indonesia. At one time, this was the largest natural commodity exporting port in Southeast Asia.

The Bumi Laut Group is one of the oldest shipping companies in Indonesia, with business interests in ship ownership, ship operations, ship management, ship agencies, ship brokerage, ship maintenance and repair, shipping services, as well as in the marine and maritime industry, energy, defense, agriculture, resource-based industries, logistics, transportation, freight forwarding, trucking, warehousing and depot activities, general contracting, trading, and strategic investments.

The Group has undergone many phases of development, gaining industry knowledge and market insight, and has created more businesses either independently or in cooperation with business partners and strategic alliances throughout its ongoing journey.

The Group continuously seeks opportunities to invest and grow in new trades and other related businesses, utilizing its own resources or collaborating on a win-win basis with customers, partners, and stakeholders.

The Group is managed by competent executives and supervised by eminent senior advisors, who have been involved in the shipping industry and associated with several reputed national and foreign shipping lines for many years.

Over the years, the Group has continued to develop its businesses, resources, and management systems, aiming for efficient business operations and sustainable long-term growth with good corporate governance.

The Bumi Laut Group has an excellent network of offices in Indonesia and representations regionally and globally. The Group has various operating companies, business associations, and strategic alliances worldwide.
